

Kalkan Blue

Kalkan is one of the few destinations where you can surrender to barefoot chic; where time has no meaning, the ordinary is replaced by the exquisite and where local charm melts the soul.

Whilst attracting a cosmopolitan crowd with its quality restaurants and elegant shopping, this exclusive destination still retains its village charm with white-washed properties, punctuated with vivid bursts of bougainvillea radiating out from the small picturesque harbour.

Kalkan enjoys the most settled weather in the Meditteranean with long, hot, hazy days and warm, sultry evenings.
